Considering the fact that the season has not really begun yet, this was quite unusual. Mr. Olds says they never expect many orders before March. Throughout his large warehouse, men are busy cleaning odds and ends and getting ready for the spring business. A car load of clover and grass seed is expected to arrive in a few days, also a car load of seed corn from Illinois to supplement the large stock of home grown corn. WISCONSIN CREAMERIES.

Urged to Send Exhibits to National Convention at St. Paul.

M. Michaels, of Garnet, Wis., vice-president of the association, is sending this announcement to Wisconsin creameries:

"The national Creamery Butter Makers' association holds its annual meeting at St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 18-22. An effort is being made to get out a representation of the best Wisconsin butter for exhibition at this convention.

"Will you send a tub of butter? Your regular every-day butter that is now bringing the price of extras on the market is all that is desired to show that Wisconsin's standard of creamery butter is a high one.

"Mottles need to be carefully attended to as a great deal of the exhibition butter has been scored off on this defect in the past. By salting while the butter is granular and by working several times within a period of at least three hours you will find that the mottles may be overcome. With combined churns the butter should be worked a few revolutions and then allowed to stand and work again. Do not hurry the working process, but allow it to consume at least three hours' time.

"The salt, color and body of your exhibition tub of butter ought to be perfect and you can make it so. Twenty pounds is the amount required for an exhibit, and a clean spruce tub of this size makes a neat package.

"Be sure and examine your butter carefully before it is shipped.

"Write early to Secretary E. Sudendorf, Elgin, Ill., for entry blanks. The exhibition butter must be in St. Paul by Feb. 9.

"Wisconsin ought to make a better showing than last year, and can do so with your help."

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

An audience that packed the Grand from pit to dome greeted T. Corson Clarke and his merry company at the Myers Grand last evening. The opening play was "The Fatal Scur," and for a repertory production the company scored a hit. Mr. Clarke has surrounded himself with a very capable company, prominent among them being Will J. Fitzgerald, a very clever Irish comedian; Miss Goldie Beach, the leading lady, had a very trying role in Ruth, but acquitted herself very creditably. Tonight the company produce "A Man of the World," the play that built Corson's $68,000 theater in Brooklyn. Ladies will be admitted free this evening with a paid ticket. By special arrangement the following merchants are giving away free reserved seat tickets: Ames Reberg & Co., boots, shoes and clothing; Mrs. M. E. Woodstock, millinery; Burt Richardson, meat market; Fletcher Bros., grocers; C. Fredendall and W. C. Hart. As the price is low and the show good, the company will do a good business here.

St. Paul Co. Distributes Maps.

The Milwaukee & St. Paul company has just distributed some large wall maps showing the new line from Libertyville to Janesville that will put Madison on an air line to Chicago, and that for shortness of distance will eclipse any other competing line. It also shows as a part of the system the St. Paul & Duluth road, as well as the Lake Superior and Escanaba line which is now being built. It is reported that the company has ordered seventy new engines of the large modern type to run on the Lake Superior division for the ore business that the company expects to get hold of in that region. A number will be put on the Kansas City line to develop speed and institute a service that will rank second to none between Chicago and the western terminal.

The Catholic Jubilee.

Roman Catholic churches all over the world last Sunday began the six months' jubilee which occurs but once every twenty-five years. Popularly speaking, this jubilee is a sort of a revival, and it would be so called by the Protestant churches, but the Catholic church does not permit the use of any such expression for various reasons. The purpose of this jubilee is quite similar to that of the Protestant revival in that the church desires through this instrumentality to awaken increased religious zeal in the church members and to uplift their spirits to a true appreciation of religion and of the church.

TO OWN TELEGRAPH LINES.

Canadian Government Proposes to Purchase Dominion Systems.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 5.—Government ownership of telegraph systems throughout Canada and their operation in connection with the postoffice department is part of the program of the Dominion government. A similar course may be followed in regard to the telephone systems of the Dominion.

The question of the absolute control of the Canadian telegraphic service has long been discussed, but not until the present liberal government came into office has it been possible to talk purchase. With a surplus running from $6,000,000 to $7,000,000 for 1900-1901 and a prospect of an equally large surplus for 1901-1902, the plan seems feasible.

The great desire of Canadian statesmen is to see cables owned by Great Britain under the Atlantic and Pacific and joined at each ocean to wires owned by the Dominion crossing this country, and thus practically girdling the globe by a cable absolutely under imperial control. The business men of Canada are unanimously in favor of the scheme.

The Great Northwestern Telegraph company and the Canadian Pacific railway company practically control all the wires in Canada. The Canadian Pacific system extends to about 10,000 miles, and it is difficult to get at the exact cost, because it is mixed up with the railway accounts, but the cost is estimated at from $7,500,000 to $8,000,000.

The Great Northwestern system will probably come near this amount, while the Bell Telephone company of Canada has a capital of $5,000,000, so that the purchase of these concerns means a probable expenditure of from $20,000,000 to $25,000,000.

Of the total exports for the month of July, 1900—namely, $3,692,435—$298,593 worth was carried in domestic vessels and $1,986,179 worth in American vessels.

WAS WELL WORKED TO CERTAIN POINT

But the Finish Was Inglorious, and Furnishes Food for Thought.

Frauds, like the poor, are with us always, and never do they strike a more sensitive spot than when one, in the exercise of pure philanthropy, runs up against these brilliantly whitened sepulchres.

One day last week a little boy stood and wept genuine tears in front of the Grand hotel. A big hearted guest inquired the cause and learned that the child was destitute of all that constitutes comfort in a cold climate, so the youngster was fitted out with all the essentials and sent on his way rejoicing. The next day he returned, accompanied by his small sister and with a note to the effect that their mother was sick in a hospital and that the home needed pretty nearly everything in the way of attire and housekeeping appliances.

Here was a heart-moving case, sure enough. All purses came out and $1.75 was quickly contributed and the party went to the rummage sale on Milwaukee street and invested in all kinds of things. The hearts of the ladies managing the sale were touched and they loaded the children's arms high. They did not have all that was wanted but said they would on the following morning, and the children were to come back.

One lady in particular was so moved with compassion that she put the case before a class of juvenile vocalists, with the result that all sorts of good, comfortable clothing were donated and all felt happy in the consciousness of a meritorious deed that would relieve much suffering.

The next day a very wrathful woman visited the rummage sale. She was flashily dressed, had a haughty air, and was bound to make an impression. How did they dare to send such a trumpey lot of stuff to her? She was paying for what she got and had spent $1.75 at their old sale, but, of course, as she sent her children they were perfectly sure to be imposed upon. They might have their old stuff back. If they had anything new and good she would look at it, otherwise — But the threat was too blood curdling to reproduce.

Then the kind hearted lady rose to the emergency. She recognized the sick mother in the hospital, the desolate home and the empty stomachs of the children. She displayed a bunch of cold facts that let in a flood of light as to the source of the $1.75 and the other things, and the lady of the haughty mien and the fiery eye quailed before her. Then a change of front was made and terms of compromise offered, but the rummage sale manager returned the money and told the now abject patron to move on and out.

The kind hearted lady sat down and thought long and hard, and came to the conclusion that in order to carry out the scriptural injunction to be charitable, one needs the wisdom of the serpent and the harmlessness of the dove, in the proportion of ninety-five per cent. of the former and five per cent. of the latter.

JOHN MARSHALL DAY.

It is well for the nation to pause, now and then, and pay tribute to the memory of departed heroes. The centennial celebration observed yesterday by the courts and schools throughout the land, was a mark of respect to one of the greatest minds that the nation ever produced.

Chief Justice Marshall was installed as a member of the United States Supreme Court Feb. 4, 1801. He brought to the office a clear mind, and generous heart, but above all a grasp of constitutional law that made his name famous, and has kept his memory green for a century.

He possessed the courage of his convictions to such a rare degree that his decisions were never influenced by prejudice or preference, and while subject to severe criticism at times, as in the Aaron Burr case, yet, in the light of future events, public sentiment not only endorsed his judgment, but today delights to honor his memory.

John Marshall lived at a time when the infant life of the republic had need of such men. His rugged honesty, sense of justice, and clear interpretation of constitutional law, contributed largely to the formation of government, and established it on a sound basis.

A Chicago judge, in speaking of him the other day said: "The country has had three important epochs, the revolution, the civil war, and the year 1901, when our constitutional rights, as regards our insular possessions, are to be determined, by this same court of which John Marshall was an honored member so long ago." And then he said, "It would be well for the nation if the court developed at the present time a spirit like Marshall's."

Of course, popular sentiment endorses the statement, "The constitution follows the flag," but the law may decide that this sentiment lacks the support of the constitution, and if it does, our relations with Porto Rico, Hawaii, and the Philippines, will be greatly changed. If the court decides that we are exceeding our prerogative, that settles the question, and the nation will govern itself accordingly.

The constitution is an old document, and it has frequently been maligned, but it was drafted by men of clear perception, and the nation has been successfully guided by it. The Supreme court is the final tribunal, and whatever may be its decision in the present crisis, the people are bound to treat it as a John Marshall decision, and wait the development of future events to endorse it.

In the decision there is an opportunity for some man to make his name as famous as that of John Marshall. It remains to be seen whether the court produces the man.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR ANNIVERSARY.

The Christian Endeavor societies celebrated their twentieth anniversary last Sunday.

From a single society organized at Portland, Maine, the religious enterprise has developed, until today it has enrolled over 4,000,000 members, in the old and new world.

The work of this organization is purely Christian, and it is accomplishing a wonderful work for the Master, as well as for the young people connected with it. Having no distinctive creed, and with a liberality born of union, it holds with firm and steady grasp a clientele that no individual church could reach.

From its ranks are coming every year an army of stalwart men and women to take up the responsibilities of Christian work intelligently. The organization is doing much to bring Christian people of various churches nearer together. It comes as near being non-sectarian in character as any organization of the present day, and is an object lesson along that line that every church can study with profit.

It is of course, a Protestant institution, and does not include the strong young people's society of the Methodist church, known as the Epworth League, which, however works in harmony with it.

It is a misfortune that the young people's societies of all churches could not have united under one common name, inasmuch as they have a common purpose. The question of church creed is not so important as the question of right living, and it is safe to say that a very large majority of the members of any of these societies will enroll their names on some church book.
Ministers who wonder why the old fashioned revival is largely a thing of the past, will find the solution in the every-day practical work that is being done by the young people. It is better by far than excitement and emotion, because more enduring. The Christian Endeavor society, as well as all other young people's societies connected with churches, of whatever name, is entitled to every encouragement and most cordial support.

POOR KANSAS.

While Mrs. Nation and her little hatchet are raising merry Cain in Kansas, Mr. Charles Parkham is attempting to quiet the elements by prayer. He has bought a large country house, just outside of Topeka, and constructed a praying tower. With a band of forty followers who occupy the house in common, he attempts to keep a steady stream of prayer going skyward. One man pours out his petition from the tower until exhausted, when another zealot takes his place, and thus for twenty-four hours every day in the week they keep up the bombardment. When they get hungry they pray for gold and it flows in.

The city of Topeka will have a first-class lunatic asylum in full running order before they know it. If Mrs. Nation and her fanatical followers can be corralled, all the city will need is a high board fence around Mr. Parkham's headquarters, and if the gold continues to flow in there will be no expense to the state.

The tokens of respect to the memory of Queen Victoria that were exhibited in all parts of the world, and especially in the United States are an omen of good that is significant. That the nations should turn aside for a day and say to England, "You have our sympathy," is an evidence of good will, that is full of meaning. It is a fitting introduction to the new century and is a forecast of peace and friendly relations that is gratifying.

Chicago is to be congratulated on receiving the contract to raise the battleship Maine. The firm of Chamberlain & Co. are to pay the government three per cent. of the salvage. The process of clearing Havana harbor of wreckage will be watched with interest, and some new developments regarding the explosion will probably come to light.

The proposition of the Marzluft Company is now before the people, and there ought not to be any trouble in interesting capital on a long lease. If the firm succeeds in procuring a building and will put in their own light, heat and power plant, with independent motors, they will be surprised at results from an economic standpoint. That kind of a plant will pay for itself in less than five years, and do the work to perfection.

The little town of Portland, Pa., has discovered a new source of revenue that promises to be prolific. Every man that swears out loud is obliged to pay sixty-two cents per word for the privilege. This invites internal profanity and many of the citizens are so mad that they are obliged to go over into the next county for relief.

Clyde ship builders have recently placed an order for 150,000 tons of armor with American manufacturers. Yankee genius and enterprise must be a bitter dose for John Bull.

Victor Hugo claimed that there was only one thing to which man should bend the knee and that was "goodness." This has now been translated "Victoria."

The Kansas house of representatives has been in a muddle over the price of a shine. The populists advocated a ten-cent charge and lost.

The interviews we are going to get from Mars will be grateful to yellow journalism. Nobody will contradict them.

The genius exhibited by Dewet is not the kind inspired by Tobacco sauce.

The Kentucky senators voted against the canteen because they didn't sell whiskey.

Justice has traveled with a leaden heel, Mr. Neely, but it cannot be easily overturned.

Senator Quay's election was received with applause at "Cherry Hill."

Y. M. C. A. Banquet.

Last evening a complimentary banquet was tendered the Y. M. C. A. band by Mrs. George Williams and Mrs. J. O. Kline. The banquet was spread at 7 o'clock and was followed by a special program of solos, duos, trios, etc. A critic was appointed and special points of excellence emphasized. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

PARTY OF EIGHTEEN TO VISIT FLORIDA

People of Janesville, Beloit, Rockford and Fort Atkinson Seeking a Warmer Climate.

A party consisting of T. J. Bailey, wife and children, E. C. Cook and wife, Pliny Norcross and Mrs. W. T. Vankirk left today for a five weeks' visit to Cleveland, Florida.

Capt. W. T. Vankirk will leave in about a week to join the party. The company will be joined at Chicago by Arthur Hoard and wife and three children and Mrs. W. D. Hoard of Fort Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright of Evans-ton and Mrs. A. S. Jackson of Beloit.

Cleveland is situated on the west coast of Florida on the Florida Southern railroad and is south of the extreme frost line. A commodious hotel has been built here and will accommodate a large party.

The hunting and fishing is not excelled in any part of the U. S. and the members of the party that are in search of sport can get their fill.

EAST SIDE WON IT BY SCORE OF 2 TO 1

A Rough and Tumble Mix Up at the Polo Game at the Rink Last Night.

The polo game between the East Side and the West End teams at the Palace rink last evening attracted a small audience. It is very easy to see from the game put up by the two teams that they did not profit much from their game with the Horlick team. There was no system to the play, and it was a rough and tumble mix up most of the time.

The first goal was by Blakely of the East side team in six minutes and forty-five seconds, and for the balance of the fifteen minutes' play remaining, neither side scored.

In the second half the first goal was made by Schaefer in ten minutes. The next goal was won by George of the East side team, after three minutes' play. In the remaining two minutes neither side scored, which left the score 2 to 1 in favor of the East side.

The line up last evening was as follows:
East..... Position..... West.
Blakely..... first rush..... Murphy
George..... second rush..... Schaefer Murry..... center..... Lawless
Belmont..... half..... Daly
Constock..... goal..... Granger
Referee—Slightam.
Timers—Stocum and McKinney.

As this was the deciding game of the series, it leaves the East Sides champions, they having won two out of the three games.

AROUSE INTEREST IN SCHOOL WORK

Superintendent Throne and Professor Hutton Exploit Centralized School Proposition.

The educational revival inaugurated by Rock county school superintendents goes merrily on and by the time that Superintendents Ross and Throne settle back and count up the first step accomplished the centralized school proposition will be an accomplished fact, and the time only will be needed to lay up the walls and equip the new buildings. The idea is bound to be favorably received and promptly acted upon.

Supt. Throne of the eastern district and Prof. Hutton of the White-water normal are breaking ground in the county this week. Yesterday they visited two schools and held a meeting in the evening at the Woodman's hall, Emerald Grove, which doubtless will yield good results later. They visit four schools today and speak to-night at the Harmony town hall.

W. C. T. U. State Convention.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Wisconsin W. C. T. U. held at Marshfield last week it was decided to accept the invitation extended by Janesville and hold the next state meet in this city in May. This will bring a great many of Wisconsin's leading women here, and a three days' session will be held. The president of the local union desires all of the members of the local W. C. T. U. to meet at the home of Mrs. Van Alkin, next Saturday, Feb. 9, at 3 o'clock to make plans for the convention.

Had a Narrow Escape

H. S. Gilkey had a narrow escape from a serious injury yesterday. He and two of his men were standing near the saw while it was running, when without warning, it broke in two, one of the pieces flying within six inches of Mr. Gilkey, and burying itself in a pile of posts some distance back of him.

SHE RULES THE KING.

Conflicting Reports About the Newly Married Royalties of Servia.

Ever since the king of Servia, Alexander, a young man of 24, married Mme. Draga Maschin, a fascinating widow of about 42, which happy event occurred last August, conflicting reports about the couple have come over the water. From one source we learn that, while Alexander rules Servia, Queen Draga rules Alexander and that their conjugal happiness has been of very short duration. It is also said that the king contemplates abdication. From another source comes the report that his marriage has developed the king into a popular idol and that he enjoys the respect and friendship of his subjects as never before. The latest report from Belgrade is that he has decided to name a regiment for his queen, which scarcely bears out the reports of dissension.

PRIZE FIGHT WAS NIPPED IN THE BUD

Gov. La Follette's Effort to Prevent a Battle Being Fought in the Badger State.

Parties coming into the city last night on the late trains might, if they had kept watch, seen a sentinel posted along the railroad track ready to warn the sheriff of Rock county, if a suspicious looking train carrying about five hundred sports, was seen coming into the city.

All this watchfulness was caused by the fact that Eddie Crane and Peter Jackson, two prize fighters, had been driven out of Belvidere where the fight was to be held by the orders of the Governor of Illinois.

The train bearing the two fighters and about five hundred of their friends left Belvidere and headed for Wisconsin. The Chicago Tribune immediately telegraphed Governor La Follette asking him what he would do in view of the action of Governor Yates. Gov. La Follette immediately sent the following telegram to the Tribune:

"Have directed sheriffs of counties on line of railroad indicated to prevent such violation of the law, and have advised railway officials that they will be held responsible as abettors if party is brought into state on special train for such a purpose."

He also telegraphed Sheriff Maltress "to use every effort to prevent the fight taking place in Rock county." Sheriff Maltress immediately had men posted on the lines of railroad leading into this city and also had men posted at Beloit, but no train appeared.

It is reported that the train came this way as far as Caledonia Junction and then went the other way and brought up at Gilbert, Ill., where the fight was held.

ALDERMAN MURRAY TAKES HIS SEAT

REGULAR MEETING OF COMMON COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

Orders For Grading and Macadamizing of a Large Number of Streets—Ordinance Re-adopted to Conform to Supreme Court Decision—Two Cubic Yards Crushed Stone a Load.

Mayor Richardson presided last evening at the regular meeting of the common council, all of the aldermen were present with the exception of Alderman Valentine. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The reports of the city treasurer and the municipal court for January were referred to their proper committees who later reported favorably upon them and they were adopted.

The usual budget of bills were presented and the clerk instructed to draw on the treasurer for the same.

The judiciary committee reported that they had canvassed the returns from the special election recently held in the Fifth ward to elect an alderman in the place of James Sennett and that the same was correct and that William Murray was duly elected alderman from the Fifth. His bond being in due form and his surities good they were accepted and Mr. Murray took his seat as a member of the council. Mayor Richardson appointed him on the several committees in place of Mr. Sennett. Further time was granted the judiciary committee to report on the claim of Rose Hague.

City Engineer C. V. Kerch reported that he had established a curb line on Garfield street pursuant to the instructions of the council. The report was adopted.

An ordinance was presented by Alderman Rice, which under suspension, was given its third reading, adopting over again that part of the general charter law relative to street improvements that have been heretofore adopted. A decision recently made by the supreme court on the subject, prompted the re-adoption of the sections to guard against any possible loop holes.

Alderman Rice presented resolutions ordering that South Second street, from the westerly side of Wisconsin street to the westerly side of East street in the third ward be improved by grading macadamizing, and the laying of gutters and curbing and otherwise improved at his expense of abutting real estate. Similar resolutions were presented for Bluff street, from north side of East Milwaukee street to the south side of North First street; Pleasant street, from the east side of High street to the West side of Linn street; South Third street, from the east side of South Main street to the west side of Jackson street; Academy street, from the south side of West Milwaukee street to the north side of Pleasant street; Franklin street, from the south side of Dodge street to the north side of Pleasant street; Marion street, from the south side of west Milwaukee street to the north side of Pleasant street. These resolutions were favorably voted upon and the work ordered done.

Alderman Fifield had three similar orders for work on Washington street from the south side of Mineral Point avenue to the north side of West Bluff street; Ravine street, from the east side of Washington street to the west side of Jackson street; Madison street, from the south side of Jackson street to the north side of West Bluff street, excepting intersection with Ravine street.

Alderman Rice objected to the paving being done on the streets named by Ald. Fifield for the reason that the people living on those streets contemplated putting in sewerage and it should be done before the streets were macadamized. This led to an argument between Ald. Rice, Fifield and Gilkey. A vote being taken the motion was lost, three voting against it.

Ald. MacLean introduced a resolution that hereafter there be inserted in all specifications for street work, that no contractor shall be allowed to haul more than two cubic yards of crushed stone over any of the streets of the city. His reasons for introducing this measure were that no team was strong enough to haul more than two cubic yards and the extra weight tore the streets up badly. The resolution passed unanimously.

There being no further business the council adjourned.

Gives Superintendent Rose Credit.

In the official County Board proceedings published in The Gazette last week the make up was somewhat mixed. In the report of Superintendent of Schools, Superintendent Rose was robbed of credit in the report on "Overflow Schools," "Elements of Agriculture," and all the interesting research for a column or more following. Mr. Rose did not like that.

STOCKHOLDERS IN ANNUAL MEETING

LOAN, SAVINGS AND BUILDING SOCIETY OF JANESVILLE.

Receipts and Expenses For the Year—The Association is in a Healthy Condition—Officers and Directors For the Ensuing Year Elected—Large Number of Shares Called in.

The fourteenth annual meeting of the stockholders of the Loan, Savings and Building association of Janesville was held at the office of Hayner & Beers.

President Richard Valentine presided and called the meeting to order. The report of the secretary for the year 1900 was read and approved. The statement shows that the total receipts for the year to be $27,269.50 and that the total disbursements were $31,152.62. The cash on hand at the last statement was $7,270.61 leaving a cash balance at the present time of $3,887.49.

The resources are: Loans, $23,800; real estate, $4,750; cash, $3,887.49 total, $31,937.49, and the liabilities: installments, $23,746; surplus, $8,619.78; Profit and loss, $171.71; total, $31,937.49.

The treasurer's report up to January 28, 1901 shows: Cash on hand at last report, $7,270.61; received from the secretary up to date, $27,269.50; total, $34,540.11; by paid orders, $31,152.62; cash on hand, $3,887.49; total, $34,540.11.

The total receipts of the association since it was started Feb. 21, 1887 to Jan. 28, 1901 are $562,533.63 and the total disbursements, $559,146.14. The association is in a healthy condition and the amount $171.71 that has been charged to profit and loss is seemingly small considering the amount of business handled by the association.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Richard Valentine; Vice president, W. E. Clinton; treasurer, J. G. Rexford, secretary, A. P. Burnham; attorney, J. M. Whitehead; Directors for three years, A. G. Anderson, M. D. Taylor and James Sherer. To fill vacancy in board two year term, Walter Helms. To fill vacancy in board one year term, L. A. Hemmens and B. F. Nelson.

On account of the inability of the society to secure suitable loans for their money a large number of shares have been called in during the last year and paid up and a number may be called in this year.

A share of stock in the thirteenth series issued in 1890 on which $65 has been paid in is now worth $99.31 or a profit of $33.31 while a share in the fortieth series opened in 1899 on which $12 has been paid is now worth $13.17 or a profit of $1.17. The association has been a great thing for many of the investors as many a dollar has been saved in this way that otherwise would have been spent foolishly.

THE LAST SOLEMN RITES PERFORMED

The Funeral Services of Father Rivers at St. Mary's Church This Morning.

The greater part of the forenoon was occupied by the funeral obsequies of Father Rivers, which were conducted at St. Mary's church. The office for the dead began at nine thirty, followed by solemn high mass at ten. The choir of St. Thomas church of Beloit, St. Patrick's and St. Mary's in this city joined in the Gregorian chant which was very impressive. It was not far from noon when the last rites were performed.

The church was lavishly decorated with black and white over the main altar, the side altars and in long festoons from the top of the sanctuary. The drapery extended the full length of the church and across the gallery.

The sermon by Father Ward of Beloit was an eloquent tribute to the manifold virtues of the deceased, who expended every dollar in charity and died absolutely penniless. The lessons drawn from his life and from his teachings were valuable in their application to human conduct in general.

Father Ward concluded with the statement that the priest of God is liable to the same human weakness as other men, but his accountability is greater and yoke to him if he neglect or improperly perform his priestly office. As the remains were carried down the aisle the choir sang "Nearer My God, to Thee." There were few dry eyes in the church which was crowded to the doors.

Father Boucher of Fond du Lac was celebrant and Dean E. M. McGonity as deacon with Rev. J. Flaherty, sub-deacon, Rev. W. A. Goebel acted as master of ceremonies and Charles Bier of St. Francis Seminary as thurifer.

The last absolution was given by Father Goebel assisted by the deacon and sub-deacon.

The pall bearers were Rev. A. A. Bourgmeyer of Stiles, Wis., Rev. J. Salentine, Juneau; Rev. W. A. Goebel, Janesville; Rev. Jas. Flaherty, Rockford; Rev. John Buckley, Delavan and A. Harrington of Rockford.

The celebrant at the cemetery was Father Charles Boucher, a protege of Father Rivers, who suggested sending him to the seminary for education to the priesthood.

BOER INVADERS MOVING.

Three Columns Marching Toward Orange River.

COMMANDOES 19,000 STRONG.

Kaffrarian Rifles Sustain One Hundred Casualties—Twenty British Under Campbell Are Killed or Wounded—DeWet's Force South of Dewetsdorp.

London, Feb. 5.—The Cape Town correspondent of the Telegraph says that three Boer invading columns, of which Herzog's commando is the advance guard, are now moving toward the Orange river. It is believed that Piet Botha's commando, consisting of 2,000 men, with seven guns, from Smithfield, has entered the Cape Colony. Gen. Dewet is also expected to enter the colony. The British concentration is proceeding. The outlying garrisons are being withdrawn for the purpose of securing the main lines of communication.

The same correspondent says: "It appears that in the action between Gen. Knox and Gen. Dewet near Senekal the Kaffrarian rifles sustained about 100 casualties. More mounted troops are still needed."

The Pretoria correspondent of the Times estimates that there are 19,000 Boers still on commando, and says that more British troops are required.

Lord Kitchener reports to the war office as follows:

"Our casualties at Modderfontein were two officers killed and two wounded. It appears that the post was rushed on a pitch-dark night, during a heavy rain, the enemy numbering 1,400, with two guns."

"Campbell, south of Middleburg, engaged 500 Boers, who were driven back with loss. Our casualties were twenty killed or wounded."

"French is near Bethel, moving east and driving the enemy with slight opposition. Four of our ambulances, while seeking wounded, were captured. The doctors were released."

"Dewet's force is reported south of Dewetsdorp."

Lord Kitchener says that Gen. French, in driving the Boers to the east of the Transvaal, captured a fifteen-pounder and the important parts of another gun, which had been disabled. Gen. Kitchener also states that the Boer commandos in Cape Colony are being hustled around. He reports two skirmishes, in which the Boers had seventeen killed.

Dairy Crisis Is Projected.

Wabash, Ind., Feb. 5.—Eastern parties are attempting to get control of the principal dairies in this part of the state. EDWARD VII. A SICK MAN.

Specialists Say He Has Cancer of Throat.

NO HOPE OF HIS RECOVERY.

Such Is the Sensational Rumor That Went the Rounds of London Last Night—Like the Case of Late Emperor of Germany.

London, Feb. 5.—King Edward is a victim of cancer of the throat. There is absolutely no doubt of this, and the best specialists in the kingdom agree that his days are numbered. His case is exactly similar to that of the late Emperor Frederick of Germany and also that of the Duke of Edinburgh.

Sir Felix Simon, who is in regular attendance upon his majesty and sprays his throat at frequent intervals, is authority for the statement that the dread disease runs in the family of the king, and that there is absolutely no hope of his recovery.

The story was told throughout London last night, and Sir Felix, who is acknowledged to be the greatest throat specialist in the empire, keeps constant watch upon his royal patient.

On the Monday before the queen's death the king's throat was very bad, and it was with difficulty he could articulate. When it becomes necessary for him to make a speech, however short, his physician treats the throat for some time, spraying it with astringents and medicines.

At the meeting of the privy council some days ago it was almost impossible for King Edward to speak at all, and it was with the greatest difficulty he got through the trying session. His majesty knows he is doomed, but looks forward to his fate with superb courage and bears up bravely.

CROWNING OF EDWARD VII.

The Event May Be Hastened Says a London Dispatch.

New York, Feb. 5.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says that after the latest papers have been read here there will be a strong public reaction against the melancholy tendencies of the last three weeks. Interest will be stimulated in the new reign, and it is not improbable that the coronation, instead of being deferred until next year, may be hastened. The revised orders for mourning support this belief, and there are precedents for an early coronation.

There is a general feeling that a unique reign has been closed with honors and pageants fully commensurate with the historic occasion and that great business interests will not be allowed to suffer from an undue prolongation of the period of public mourning.

The theaters will be reopened this week, new plays coming at Her Majesty's and St. James'. There are croakers who persist in believing that the nation's cup of bitterness has not yet been filled to the brim and that other calamities are in reserve. There is much dismal talk about the falling health of the duke of Cornwall without any valid reason for it. The king is also reported to be breaking down in health, but there is no evidence of it in his face or figure or manner.

Another rumor that is revived relates to the possible retirement of the prime minister and the reorganization of the ministry under the duke of Devonshire or Mr. Balfour. This is clearly premature. Lord Salisbury, without doubt, has lost interest in public life and would welcome release from office, but he has a strong sense of duty and will remain prime minister at the request of the king, at least until the new reign has fairly opened and the sovereign's caves have been diminished. Many dismal forebodings now expressed are due to public gloom and depression.

Husband Dead, Wife to Live.

Columbus, Ind., Feb. 5.—John Clem shot his wife, and thinking he had killed her, sent a bullet through his own brain. The injuries of Mrs. Clem were slight, but Clem succeeded in ending his life. For some time there has been trouble between Mr. and Mrs. Clem, and since last September they had been living apart.

Grosscup Dead.

Redlands, Cal., Feb. 5.—Benjamin Grosscup, father of United States Circuit Judge Grosscup of Chicago, died suddenly at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lehman.

THE ARMY LIST IS READY.

Officers Are to Be Distributed at Once.

SURPRISES ARE EXPECTED.

Gen. Chaffee May Win Rank Next to Miles—Promotion for Gen. Grant—A Long List of Nominations—Spooner's Anti-Subsidy Plan.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 5.—Brig.-Gen. Frederick Grant, U. S. V., will be nominated by the president to be a brigadier-general in the regular army. This is the understanding. So far as can be learned there is no change in the decision reached on Saturday to make Maj.-Gen. A. R. Chaffee of the volunteer army a major-general of regulars in advance of Brig.-Gen. James F. Wade, and thus ensure his appointment as governor-general of the Philippines upon the detachment of Maj. Gen. Arthur MacArthur. Especial interest is taken in army circles as to the precedence which will be given to officers appointed major-generals and brigadier-generals because of the effect it will have upon their chances of receiving the coveted appointment of lieutenant-general. Lieut.-Gen. N. A. Miles, whose nomination will be transmitted to the senate, will retire Aug. 3, 1903. Maj.-Gen. Brooke and Otis retire next year. If Gen. Chaffee is made the senior major-general he will succeed Gen. Miles as lieutenant-general and hold office until April 15, 1906. If Gen. Wade be given seniority next to Gen. Chaffee he will be eligible for appointment as lieutenant-general from April 14, 1906, until April 14, 1907. Gen. S. B. M. Young will retire in 1904, and he will probably never reach the grade of lieutenant-general even if immediately made a major-general. Maj.-Gen. Arthur MacArthur will surely be appointed a major-general in the regular establishment.

Nominations by the President.

The president sent many nominations to the senate. Among the principal ones are the following:

Infantry—Lieutenant-colonels to be colonels: Mott Hooton, 6th; William M. Van Horn, 18th; Constant Williams, 15th; Augustus W. Corliss, 2d; Richard L. Eskridge, 23d. Majors to be lieutenant-colonels: A. H. Rowman, 2d; J. T. Kirkman, 16th; M. C. Foote, 9th; Edmund Rice, 3d; C. G. Penney, 22d; William Quinton, 14th; J. C. Chance, 5th; C. H. Noble, —; John F. Stretch, 8th; William P. Rogers, 20th. Captains to be majors: J. R. Clagett, 11th; C. J. Crane, 24th; H. K. Bailey, 5th. Cavalry—Lieutenant-colonels to be colonels: A. B. Wells, 9th; Theodore J. Spencer's Anti-Subsidy Plan.

Senator Spencer (Wis.) holds the club that will probably settle the fate of the ship subsidy bill, and he is in a humor to bring it down with force to the demoralization of the subsidy forces and the destruction of the bill. He has outlined a plan to call up the oleomargarine bill and contest with it the further consideration of the subsidy bill.

There is only ONE POND'S EXTRACT, and everybody knows its purity, strength and great medicinal value. A Thoroughgood School. A handsome gift recently presented to the Spring Brook school is a large motto done in water colors bearing the inscription, "A Thoroughgood School." This is in recognition of John Thoroughgood's generous donation of the ground on which the building stands. Around the lettering are tasteful floriated designs which make the motto a thing of beauty as well as a reminder of a generous deed.

The gift came from Miss Francis Bailey and the work was executed by Mrs. Frank Bailey of Spokane, who does very creditable work in the line of decorative art.

TO CURE THE GRIP.

Advice of a Famous Physician.

First and foremost, rest. Take care of yourself. Your already weakened nerves want rest, and must have it. If the attack is severe go to bed and remain there. More fatalities result from neglect of this precaution than from any other cause.

Eat sparingly. Your digestive organs are in no condition to take care of the large quantities of food. Drink plenty of pure cold water. It allays the fever, stimulates the kidneys to action and opens up the pores of the skin. Keep the bowels open with Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills.

Take three doses of Dr. Miles' Nerve per day, and if you cannot sleep take an extra dose at bed time. To overcome the fever and to overcome the peculiar aches and pains of the grip, use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. They act quickly and effectually, and no bad effects result from their use. These remedies have been thoroughly tested more than a million times, and their efficiency is thoroughly established. They never fail to give relief.

Dr. Miles' Remedies can be found at any drug store, and they are sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle or package benefits or money refunded.

If I had Grip I would use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills and Dr. Miles' Nerve. Sold at all Druggists.

For Grip aches use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. Sold by all Druggists.

USEFUL CROCHETING.

SOME WARM AND PRETTY GARMENTS
IN ASTRACHAN STITCH.A Set For a Child of About Eighteen Months—A Quaint Little Dutch Hood, a Fetching Beribboned Muff and a Neat Cape to Match.

With the fashionable revival of knitting, crocheting, tatting, etc., many things that were favorites of the past come up again, and among them few are more attractive than the soft, warm, comfortable garments in imitation astrakhan for a small child. With a bone crochet hook, No. 8 or 9, and four ply fingering, make a chain of

A LITTLE DUTCH HOOD.

any even number of stitches, including the stitch on the hook. Work into the loops an alternate stitch of double crochet (D C) and picot stitch, which is made as follows: Insert the hook, draw the wool through the loop; then through one, six or seven times before drawing it through two. Repeat these two stitches, a D C and a picot to the end of the row; end with 1 D C. Turn with one chain and repeat, but in this and every row hereafter take both sides of the loops. In working, the picots must be kept on one side of the work, toward you in one row and away from you in the next. The garments described and illustrated are worked in the same stitch. Directions are given for the shaping.

For the quaint little Dutch hood take about two ounces of white or gray fingering. Make a chain of 20. Work for about 3½ or 4 inches for the back of the crown. In the next row, and with the picots facing you, work to within two stitches of the end. Turn with one chain, and work to within two stitches of the other end. Repeat this row until only seven stitches remain. Break off the wool and with the picots facing you work from the right hand corner of the crown up the side, across the seven stitches and down the other side of the crown.
Work from end to end of the crown for three inches, thus forming the top and sides of the hood. With the picots facing you again, work to within 12 stitches of the end (six picots), turn with one chain and work to within 12 stitches of the other end. Work two rows from end to end. Work to within 18 stitches of the end, turn and work to within 18 stitches of the other end.
Work two rows from end to end. Work one row more from end to end and around the back of the neck, missing two stitches (1 D C, 1 picot) four times in the center of the back. Work once all around in D C and finish off. This hood looks better lined with a thin silk, but it is not necessary to do so.

For a muff to match use four ounces of fingering. Make a chain of 60 and work in the same stitch for about 1½ or 10 inches. The length should be 1½ or 2 inches more than the breadth.

Line with cotton wadding or down and thin silk or satin, and finish with ribbons or cord and bows.

A neat little cape in the same style

How to Boil Onions.

Pour boiling water over the onions and remove the skins. Cook them for five minutes in boiling salted water, then change the water and change again in ten minutes, to remove the strong taste. Boil until tender, about one half hour, then drain off the water, season with salt, butter and pepper,
and add one cupful or more of cream sauce. Cook for ten minutes and serve in a deep covered vegetable dish.

PLOT TO KILL ITALY'S KING.

Police Authorities at Rome Notified of Alleged Anarchist Conspiracy.

Paris, Feb. 5.—Exceptional precautions are being taken here to guard against anarchists. French, Italian and English detectives were on the eve of departing for Paterson, N. J., when ugly rumors have reached Europe respecting anarchist meetings and designs. A message from Rome announces that the Italian police authorities have been warned from Washington that an Italian named Calcagno left for Europe the other day, commissioned by his fellow-conspirators in Paterson to attempt the life of the king of Italy. In consequence of this warning the strictest measures are being taken by way of precaution. All arrivals from the United States are carefully watched at all ports and frontier stations throughout Italy. It is reported from London that the police there are likewise manifesting unusual zeal on account of the presence of so many royalties, in connection with the queen's funeral.

Ignorance Causes Uncharitable Feelings.

The real reason why people find more excuses for their own thoughts than for the thoughts of their neighbors is that they know all about the one, and, by no means, all about the other, and that, therefore, when humanity knows, even as it is known, there will be no more severe judgments, no more spiteful criticisms, but perfect knowledge will insure perfect charity.—Ellen Thornycroft Fowler.

Spanish Royal Engagement Friction.

Queen Isabella does not approve of the engagement of her granddaughter, the Princess of the Asturias, to the Duke of Calabria. Curiously enough, the Count of Caserta, father of the duke, is unable to visit Spain because he was sentenced, years ago, to pains and penalties for his connection with a Carlist conspiracy. It adds piquancy to Spanish royal marriages that the father-in-law of a princess should have to avoid the Spanish police.

Natives of China.

A person born in China, no matter what nationality of parents, is by birth a Chinese, but if born of parents who themselves are not Chinese the child on attaining majority may elect to adopt the citizenship of the father.—San Francisco Call.

Re-Stocking Cuba with Cattle.

When American armies were in Cuba the island was almost depleted of cattle, a vast number of the animals having been killed for food. Now the ranchmen and farmers are busy stocking up again and have made heavy drafts on Florida.
